The first term of Prof. Thompson's dancing receptions gave such universal satisfaction that he has consented to give another series, the first number of which will be at Longwell's opera house on Thursday evening next.

The B Flat Club embraces, not only the best musical talent in the place, but, to the extent of its membership, our best society ladies. We hope to see their efforts appreciated and encouraged by a large audience to-night. Concert begins promptly at 8 o'clock.

Woodchuck scalps are no longer a legal tender for subscription to this paper, the board of supervisors having decreed that no more bounty shall be paid on the varmints. This action on the part of the supervisors, however, will not interfere with cases of absolute "must."

The members of the high school, and especially those of her class, were much grieved when informed that Miss Floy Snow had severed her connection with the school. Being a leading member of her class, and highly esteemed by all her school friends, she will be greatly missed. Miss Snow goes to Chicago to take a course in music.

Mrs. Ohlinger of Korea, who is traveling in Michigan in missionary extension work, will lecture at the Disciple church next Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E. She is said to be a very interesting speaker. All are invited to attend. No admission fee will be charged, but a collection will be taken to defray expenses.

At the Jackson Poultry show last week, Mr. F. P. Grimes of this place won on Black Minorcas: 1st on cock; 1st and 2d on hen; 1st and 2d on cock; 1st and 2d on pullet, and 1st and 2d on breeding pen. Having the highest scoring--hen, breeding pen and trio, and ten highest scoring birds in the show room. On Plymouth Rocks he won 1st, 2d and 3rd.

The cold wave which struck this section last Friday night attained sufficient vigor to send the mercury down to 13 degrees below zero at 5 o'clock Saturday morning, but weakened before noon of the same day. A furious snow storm set in about the same time and continued until fourteen inches of the beautiful had fallen, making, of course, excellent sleighing.

To-morrow (Saturday) has been set apart by W. R. Sellick & Co. as special dress goods day, and no lady anticipating the purchase of a dress in the near future should neglect the opportunity thus presented of saving money, as the prices have been literally cut to the quick. And while there, just ask to see that new novelty in ladies' shoes.

Miss Kittie Ward won the piano in the Kalamazoo Telegraph's voting contest, which closed at 10 o'clock last Saturday forenoon, she receiving 36,466 votes as against 30,229 for her closest competitor and out of a total vote of 92,576. Miss Ward formerly lived in this place and has a host of friends here who "voted early and often" for their favorite during the entire campaign.

Mr. Willey of this county has introduced a bill in the House reducing the salaries of the Justices of the Supreme Court from $2,000 to $5,000. This is understood to be in line with the ideas of the State Grange, as expressed at its recent session. He has also an important amendment to the tax law of 1893, which requires that fifty per cent of the assessment must be paid within the month of December or the whole tax becomes due Jan. 1, with a penalty of four per cent added. If fifty per cent is paid in December, the payment of the balance may be deferred until the following June. On all sums paid in December the collection fee is one per cent.

"Donovan of Bay" is in the swim. He voted with the Republicans in the House for McMillan, thereby making it possible for the first time in the history of Michigan to elect a United States senator by a unanimous vote. The cheers and applause which followed the announcement of his vote caused an uproar for several minutes, and a mammoth bouquet with a huge lily towering up from its center was set on his desk. In voting on the short term senatorship, however, he cast his ballot for Hon. John Strong, his party candidate. The total vote for McMillan was ninety-eight and was unanimous. Messrs. Stoll and Waldo of Wayne being the only absent members.

No international bugbear ever vanished more quickly than the time-honored fear that China might some day break down her reserve and decide to overrun the world. Photographs of Chinese soldiers practicing with bows and arrows and fighting under paper umbrellas have totally demolished what Japan's well trained and equipped army has left of China's military prestige. New light on Chinese reticence and desire for peace at any price is promised from Julian Ralph's articles on China, which will appear in Harper's Magazine during the year. Mr. Ralph undertook the journey to China as soon as war broke out, and has recently returned with abundant material on the subject of Chinese life and character. His articles will be illustrated by Mr. C. D. Weldon, who worked conjointly with Mr. Ralph, and will be published as early as the preparation of the illustrations will permit.

Chester F. Allen, for over half a century an honored and respected citizen of this place, died at the home of his son Seth E. on the morning of the 11th inst., aged 78 years and 6 months. Mr. Allen located in Paw Paw in 1842 and followed the avocation of carpenter for several years, when he entered the employ of the Michigan Central Railroad Co. and remained with it until 1853, when he was tendered and accepted the position of superintendent of buildings, cars and bridges for the C. B. & Q. R. R., with headquarters at Aurora, Ill. This position he filled for twelve years and resigned it to enter the employ of the Pullman Co., going to Detroit and superintending the building of their works in that city, and then acted as general purchasing agent for that corporation until 1876, when he resigned and settled down with his family here. Mr. Allen had a wide reputation as an expert in mechanic arts and was the inventor of several valuable improvements in car trucks, bridge trusses, etc. He leaves two children, Seth E. of this place and Mrs. May Pierce of Chicago. The funeral was conducted by Elder John Hurd from the Disciple church Sunday afternoon. Interment at Prospect.

Hon. J. G. Parkhurst, one of the oldest practicing lawyers in Southwestern Michigan, died at his home in Decatur last Sunday. Deceased was a member of the lower branch of the state legislature in 1885 and discharged the duties devolving upon him in a conscientious, painstaking and intelligent manner. As a private citizen his character and daily life were well worthy of emulation. In his death the community at large has lost a worthy citizen; his locality an upright and honorable man; his family a kind and loving husband and father. Prominent members of the legal fraternity from various parts of the state attended the funeral, which was held Wednesday afternoon.

About twenty leading physicians of the state, including the legislative committee of the State Medical society and members of the State Board of Health, met in Lansing on the 10th inst. and agreed to a bill, which will be introduced in the legislature, to provide for the licensing of physicians who shall hereafter decide to practice medicine in this state. Two bills were presented, one being presented by Dr. Greene of Grand Rapids, and the other by the Detroit delegation. The best features of both bills were incorporated into one, which provides for the creation of a State Board, similar to the Board of Pharmacy. The bill provides that the board shall be composed of nine members, including four regular physicians, three homeopaths, one eclectic and one of the physio-medical school. They shall constitute a board to grant licenses to practice to physicians having diplomas from schools having a four years' course and a preliminary examination, or to those who shall pass an examination before the board. It is expected that the fees to be received from the granting of licenses will defray the expenses of the board, so that it will be self-sustaining. This is as the scheme appears on the surface, but we fail to see why, from an equitable point of view, any one school of practice should have more members on the proposed board than another, and this feature of the measure will undoubtedly be thoroughly aired before the bill becomes a law. Action on the measure will be closely scrutinized by the various interests involved.

In May, 1893, the late Geo. E. Breck took a mortgage on the farm of Charles F. Teal of Columbia, in this county, for $950. It was agreed that Breck should withhold from the amount $800 to pay and discharge a prior mortgage on the same property and thus make the $950 mortgage a first lien. Mr. Teal left the matter of procuring the discharge of the first mortgage wholly with Breck, supposing it would be to his interest to have it done, in order that his might become the first lien. After Breck's death Teal learned that Breck had not paid the first mortgage, and instead of having an $800 mortgage on his farm he had mortgages aggregating $1750.00. Breck sold the $950 mortgage within ten days after it was given to Mrs. Eveline A. House of Kalamazoo. These mortgages, if enforced, would have had the effect of turning Mr. Teal and his family off the farm in their advanced age, without anything. The matter was put in the hands of Heckert & Chandler for adjustment. Mrs. Teal, accompanied by Mr. Heckert and E. A. Crane, on Tuesday last went to see Mrs. House in respect to a settlement of the matter. Mrs. House is an aged lady, in good circumstances. Her countenance fairly beams with christian benevolence. When she heard a statement of the transaction, her great heart was at once filled with sympathy for these unfortunate people, and her long life, devoted to Christ and the upbuilding of His kingdom, had prepared her for the performance of one of the noblest acts that has ever come to our notice. Without a word of persuasion, and entirely by her own volition, she discharged her mortgage and sent these poor people home, the happiest creatures on earth. They will never forget her. Such acts clothe the christian character in garments that betoken the eternal verity of the faith which prompts them.

Judge Buck's Candidacy.

The candidacy of the Hon. George M. Buck for the nomination as the Republican candidate for the office of Justice of the Supreme Court, to succeed Judge McGrath, has been received with great favor throughout the state, and with the solid support of the Third and Fourth congressional districts, which he ought, and undoubtedly will have, his chances for the nomination are exceedingly bright.

The candidates are so numerous that no nomination can be expected at the outset, and probably several ballots will be necessary before a choice is made. Judge Buck will not lose ground upon any of them, and unless the eastern end of the state shall be solidified for one of the candidates from that location, he is very likely to receive substantial support in that direction from the start.

The fact is, the Judge is so well known as a much more than ordinarily able lawyer and jurist, and his reputation as a soldier, a citizen, and a Republican is so extended, and he has so many active friends in every section of the state who appreciate his merits and desire his promotion, that he can confidently count upon a very flattering vote from the state at large.

Judge Buck's candidacy is not simply a local matter and does not represent merely his own section; he stands as the candidate of the state as a whole more prominently than any of the gentlemen who have been announced as competitors for the place.

A meeting of leading attorneys and prominent Republicans was held in Judge Buck's interest at Kalamazoo a few days since, at which a committee was appointed and plans completed for a vigorous campaign in his behalf, and all honorable means will be taken to see to it, not only that nothing is left undone to strengthen and make the most of the very formidable vantage ground he now occupies, but that representative men are selected as delegates to press his claims vigorously before the convention.
